2008-09 Smart Track Support Group Forum

What is the goal of the Smart Track Support Group Forum?

The Smart Track Support Group Forum is an information-sharing meeting that features formal and informal presentations, discussions and interactions between healthcare professionals (doctors, dentists, nurses, public health practitioners) parents and prospective students that will provide insightful examinations of:

- (1) Career awareness and pathways to the study of Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing and allied health professions
- (2) Effective study and communication skills and training strategies that prepare and move students along the educational pathway to these healthcare careers
- (3) Health awareness of contemporary community health issues affecting African-American and other people of color

Why attend Smart Track Support Group Forums?

Smart Track Support Group Forums are designed to create greater awareness of the need to produce more trained healthcare professionals of color and to provide the “heads up” on:

- (a) Identifying interest-compatible healthcare and other care
- (b) Developing effective study skills and strategies for academic preparation
- (c) Obtaining funding to finance education and training for your career interests
- (d) Identifying risk factors for disease prevention and good health maintenance
- (e) Staying abreast of change in healthcare developments
- (f) Selecting Colleges, Medical, Dental and Professional schools
